Article 13 - Public Health, Safety, and the Environment
Title 7 - Nuisances
Subtitle 1 - General Nuisances on Private Property and on Public Roads
Baltimore County Code, 2003

WHEREAS, underage possession and consumption of alcohol is an ongoing problem in our society, and particularly in areas with colleges and universities that have a concentration of minor children and of-age young adults that consume excessive amounts of alcohol; and

WHEREAS, minors often obtain, possess, or consume alcoholic beverages at uncontrolled and unsupervised social gatherings held at residences, or rented residential or commercial premises of persons who know or should know of such underage or excessive behavior but fail to stop it; and

WHEREAS, underage consumption of alcoholic beverages poses a threat to the public health, safety, and welfare in that it increases alcohol abuse by minors, physical altercations, and potential criminal behavior including assaults and sexual offenses, and also results in accidental injury, neighborhood vandalism, and excessive noise disturbance, all of which may require intervention by public safety officials; and

WHEREAS, uncontrolled or unsupervised social gatherings with large numbers of underage drinkers and inadequate or no adult supervision are particularly high-risk settings for these adverse consequences; and

WHEREAS, landlords of private property who have been notified that their tenants and guests are hosting or otherwise permitting underage or uncontrolled social gatherings on their property where alcoholic beverages are served to and consumed by underage persons have a responsibility to ensure that such activities do not recur on their property, and the failure to take action after such notification causes serious disruption to the peaceful and quiet enjoyment of neighboring residents and communities; and

WHEREAS, persons who actively or passively aid, allow, or tolerate underage drinking and uncontrolled social gatherings should be held responsible for the nuisances created by persons attending such gatherings; and

WHEREAS, public safety responses to disturbances involving underage or excessive consumption of alcoholic beverages at uncontrolled social gatherings frequently require the use of extensive police, fire, and emergency medical resources, often on multiple occasions, which limits their ability to respond to other service calls in the community, thereby placing the community at further risk, with no legal responsibility on the part of the host and attendees of the gathering, or the landlord to control and deter such gatherings; and

WHEREAS, the County Council deems it appropriate to deter underage possession or consumption of alcohol or excessive drinking by of-age young adults at uncontrolled or unsupervised social gatherings by holding responsible those persons who attend and participate in the gatherings, and those who encourage, are aware or should be aware, or own the premises where the unruly social gathering takes place, yet fail to prevent it; now therefore,
